MITCHELL'S

In 1922, at the tender age of 15, James Mitchell came to the United States to seek fame and fortune.

What he found was a job in his uncle's restaurant in Jamaica, Queens.

After 17 years there, he and his uncle had saved enough to open "Teddy's" ... a Luncheonette/Ice Cream Parlor at 211 Rockaway Avenue, Valley Stream. He worked at Teddy's until 1943 when he, as well as many other young men, went off to war, where he served his Country instead of diners.

Returning unharmed in 1945, with the restaurant calling still in his blood, he sold Teddy's and opened a new establishment across the street, at 170 Rockaway Avenue ...

"MITCHELL'S"

Sixteen years later in 1961, desiring an even bigger success, he moved to 191 Rockaway Avenue where Mitchell's stands today.

Then in 1968, he purchased the Bakery next door, allowing for even more expansion to his restaurant.

Today, Mitchell's ... believed to be the oldest established business on Rockaway Avenue, operates as a Full Service Restaurant, while keeping to the original traditions of James Mitchell.

Thanks to the continuing patronage and loyalty of our Customers, Mitchell's has served Valley Stream and surrounding communities for over 7 Decades.
